PROFESSOR PEPPER'S GHOSTS AT THE CEMETERY GATES.

FR-SBY.—SPIRITS OF DARKNESS, RESTLESS GHOSTS OF THOSE SO LONG SINCE DEAD, WHAT DO YOU HERE?

GRAND CHORUS OF GHOSTS.—WE'RE COME TO POLL!

MR. FR-SBY, AND THE GHOSTS AT THE CEMETERY.

The sun set in the West, a lake of fire,
And soon chaste Luna, rose upon the view—
And as she in the sky rose somewhat higher,
The night had palled all nature with a hue
Dusky as blackest Ethiop, and the moon
A grey mysterious tint gave all things soon;
'Twas in the month that followeth next to June.

As we have said, all sounds were hushed around,
A solemn stillness grave-yard mounds doth fill,
When, hark! a low mysterious rustling sound—
A sound that bids the beating heart be still;

And, lo! a ghostly band of spectres rise!
A ghostly radiance fills their vacant eyes,
And Fr—sby gazes with a wild surprise!

Spirits of darkness, restless ghosts of those
So long since dead, why have ye left the grave?
Why thus perambulate on ghostly toes?
Are ye the spirits of the long-lost brave?
How is't your eyes so restlessly do roll?
The bell, for your repose did long since toll;
The spirits answered, we are come to POLL!

It is not true that Mr. Wilson of the "Generous Briton," came out of the grave to poll; it was supposed to be another man of the same name.
