

The ALADDIN magic lantern
by Ernst Plank - Coll. Levie

A general view of the exhibition room

A charming figure of an eighteenth century Galantie Man - Coll. Henry

The smallest working magic lantern ever by J. P. Stevens, 1983 - Coll. Knight

A typical eighteenth century lantern

The extraordinary PAGODA lantern
by Ernst Plank - Coll. Levie

A famous matched pair of lanterns circa 1840 as used by Thomas Knott of the Royal Polytechnic Institute - Coll. Simkin

The Convention Exhibition and this centrefold were organised and designed by Tony Dugdale. Graphics Patricia Dugdale, photographs
Dennis Crompton and Paul Barnett